

About us

Wild Dahlia Florals started off with a vision – to create beautiful and memorable arrangements for you and your guests to enjoy. We have a passion and love for flowers and anything artistic!

Having first started training with an event florist in London, we saw how the combination of mixing any floral component (flower or plants) with props is possible - and we mean ANYTHING is possible.

After spending a good 4 years with this amazing event styling company, we ventured on to work with some of London's well known and respected florists and now we bring our experience and expertise to you.

We would love to work with you to bring a memorable result to both you and your guests.

Weddings

We love weddings. Most of all, we love it when a bride's face lights up when she sees her bridal flowers for the first time. Your wedding will be one of the most special days of your life and interpreting your dream is our mission.

Whether you like vintage, modern or like all things full and fluffy, let the team at Wild Dahlia Florals help you achieve this. We will take the time to carefully listen and interpret your ideas into the wedding flowers of your dreams!

Welcome to Wild Dahlia Florals, where vision and creativity come to life.

From bridal parties, to ceremonies, receptions, and corporate events, we can style any event to suit each individual need.

Your flowers are in safe hands and we will work with you to find the most suitable flowers, bouquet styles and arrangements to make your wedding day perfect!
